

COUNCIL HOLDS FINAL SESSION

Will Meet Next Year at Goldsboro—Reports by Women's Organizations.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Edenton, N. C., May 21.—The session of the Council of East Carolina began with an early celebration of the Holy Communion. A large number of the women were present for their corporate communion and the presentation of their annual offering to the bishop's fund. The report of the committee on the state of the church provoked considerable discussion bearing upon the incomplete and inadequate reports sent in by the clergy.

Thomas D. Meares, of Wilmington, was unanimously re-elected treasurer of the diocese.

The council went into committee of the whole to discuss the financial condition of the diocese, with Wilson G. Lamb, of Williamston, in the chair. A proposition for raising funds, familiarly known as the Newark plan, was brought before the council and acted on in the negative. Action on a resolution to reduce the number of delegates from each parish from four to two, to be elected at an open parish meeting, and to pay their traveling expenses, was postponed until next year.

The council was invited to meet next year in St. Stephen's Parish, Goldsboro, and the invitation was accepted.

George Rountree, of Wilmington, was re-elected chancellor. The present standing committee, the committee on finance, the trustees of the diocese, the trustees of St. Mary's School and the trustees of the Thompson orphanage were all re-elected.

Today was woman's day at the council. The business meeting was called to order in the Opera House by the president, Mrs. Harding, of Washington, and opened by the chaplain, Mrs. Tom Shepard, and responded to by Mrs. W. E. Cox. The roll call showed seventy-four delegates present. The reports of the various officers all showed great increase in offerings and in mission study classes. The secretary, Miss Collins, gave a summary of work for the past twenty-four years and by comparison showed the wonderful progress made. The bishop then, in the noonday prayer for missions, and publicly thanked Mrs. Harding, the retiring president, for her faithful and efficient service.

The offering made this morning for the bishop's fund was then announced to be $375.55, the largest amount yet given. Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Hyde county, came before the meeting to explain the use he had made of the offering given to him last year for a horse and buggy. Immediately a collection was taken and $140 given him for this purpose. Rev. Mr. Tyndal, of Fayetteville, then presented his cause, a mission house in the mill village of Victoria. Rev. Mr. Smith, of the orphanage, thanked all for past efforts, and urged continuance of the same. Mrs. Webb, of Wilmington, thanked the people of Edenton for their unbounded hospitality, after which the doxology was sung and Rev. Dallas

Tucker, of Greenville, pronounced the benediction.

The social feature of the council was a delightful garden party given this afternoon in the grounds of Beverly Hall, the beautiful home of Dr. Richard Dillard. The closing service of the council was a splendid mission service to-night, with the Rev. James M. Owens, of Norfolk, as the special speaker.

Closing Exercises Next Week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Littleton, N. C., May 21.—The commencement exercises of Littleton College next week will be of unusual interest.

Professor R. D. W. Connor has been invited to deliver an address on the "Life and Educational Work of ex-Governor Aycock," who, at the time of his death, was a member of the board of trustees.

It will be the thirtieth anniversary of the institution, and a very large attendance is expected.

Drinkard—Eunice.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., May 21.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Coffee, in Madison Heights, was the scene of a lovely marriage Sunday evening, when Miss Alice Eunice was married to Grover C. Drinkard, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. C. Walker, of the Methodist Church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dunfee. They left for St. Louis, Mo., where Mr. Drinkard is engaged in the hotel business.

Last week a young man giving his name as Jones was arrested in Marlinton, W. Va., the authorities there thinking he filled the description of Wesley Edwards. A Baldwin detective went to West Virginia and saw the prisoner. "Jones" admitted that he had worked in the vicinity of the Allen home, in Carroll county, saying that he assisted some of the relatives of the clan in the illicit whiskey business, but he stoutly denied that he was Wesley Edwards. A picture was made of the man, and it closely resembles the original pictures of Edwards which were sent out by the detectives.

Mr. Baldwin is unable to say positively whether the man in the Marlinton jail is Edwards, but he thinks so much of the clue that the man is being held, and this question of establishing his identity will be settled within a few days.

Mr. Robert Graves.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

charge the matter of running to earth the members of the Allen clan who are under indictment for the Hillsville murders, announced an increase of rewards in excess of that already offered by the State, the additional rewards being offered for Sidney Allen and Wesley Edwards. The offer was made on the authority of Governor William Hodges Mann.

The additional offer puts $1,500 on the head of Sidney Allen, dead or alive, and $1,000 is offered for any information leading to his arrest, or capture, dead or alive. Seven hundred and fifty dollars is placed on Wesley Edwards, dead or alive, and the person furnishing information leading to his arrest will receive $500.

Mr. Baldwin said that he and his partner, Mr. W. M. Lucian, would place the money in the First National Bank of Galax before Saturday.

Sidney Allen and Wesley Edwards, the only members of the Allen clan at large, have been at bay a little over two months, but the State officers and detectives in charge of the case are determined that they shall be left undone that might in any way lead to their arrest.

Mr. Baldwin is unable to say positively whether the man in the Marlinton jail is Edwards, but he thinks so much of the clue that the man is being held, and this question of establishing his identity will be settled within a few days.

BYRD IS REFUSED RECOGNITION BY PARTY LEADERS

Cooke, of Hanover, will go from the Third District. Peyton F. St. Clair, of Giles, and Judge John W. Price, of Bristol, will be the men from the Ninth, according to schedule. Two of the four alternates-at-large are likely to be R. Tate Irvine, of Wise, and Alfred B. Williams, of Roanoke.

The State Democratic Committee will meet here to-morrow night to select a temporary chairman, and to make up a temporary roll of delegates. Chairman Elyson will preside.

Resolutions to Be Offered.

All sorts of rumors are afloat as to the resolutions to be offered. There may be opposition to a platform which contains indorsements of Senators Martin and Swanson, although there is little or no profit in making such a fight, considering the complexion of the county upon party lines, and the resolutions will in a general way speak for tariff reform and will approve the record made by the present House of Representatives. But as the Virginia Democrats meet only once in four years in these days of primaries, all sort of State politics must be dealt with at the same time.

Prohibition sentiment will ask for a resolution, but it is not at all likely to get it. This fight may come up in the resolutions committee and be settled there, or it may be precipitated on the floor of the convention.

The place of meeting may yet be changed because of the belief that the Granby Theatre is mighty small. The Blues Armory is spoken of. A local committee is considering a boat trip for the delegates, but the plans are yet in a tentative stage.

Delegates En Route to Norfolk.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, D. C., May 21.—The Norfolk boat to-night carried a good-sized delegation to the State convention held at Norfolk on Thursday. These delegates came from Fauquier, Clarke and surrounding counties, and they were joined here by some of the members of the Virginia delegation in Congress and other Virginians who were on their way to Norfolk.

While the almost unanimous opinion among these delegates was to the effect that there would be no instructions, they admitted that the fight between the Wilson and Underwood men for control of the convention would be a hard one.

Mr. Baldwin said that he and his partner, Mr. W. M. Lucian, would place the money in the First National Bank of Galax before Saturday.
